AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

Dallas is setting a new standard for sports and entertainment venues. With the best minds in architecture and entertainment, the city and owners of the Dallas Stars and Dallas Mavericks have meticulously crafted the best sports facility in the country ... American Airlines Center.

AMERICAN AIRLINES
CENTER

The Center will open in Fall, 2001 at a cost of approximately $325 million, and will include every modern convenience. Its advanced design will be defined by wide, open concourses and specifically designed seating bowls that put fans closer than ever to the action.

The Center will feature 143 luxury suites located on the Flagship, Platinum and Admiral levels, as well as Platinum seats offering a host of comforts and amenities.

The Platinum Level will include fine restaurant dining with seating that overlooks the downtown skyline or the game. This exclusive level also will include private conference centers and specialty food and drink bars.

Not to be confused with American Airlines Arena in Miami, the American Airlines Center sits on the northwest shoulder of downtown Dallas amid a 70-acre emerging development called Victory. Victory will be an engine for continued downtown revitalization with more than 6 million square feet of entertainment, retail, residential and office space.

High Tech Hockey

American Airlines Center sits on a buried superhighway of fiber optic cable. So it was easy for designers to give the facility the most cutting-edge technological amenities available today.

Artist Rendering of the South Entrance of American Airlines Center

With Dallas quickly becoming a technology boomtown, and with tech-savvy owners like Mark Cuban, Ross Perot Jr. and Tom Hicks, this project was bound from the beginning to be a technological masterpiece.

American Airlines Center will boast:

- * More digital signs than any other sports and entertainment center
- * Replay boards five generations beyond the ones in Reunion Arena
- * High tech sounds and P.A. systems
- * Internet access in luxury suites and conference rooms
- * Ticket tracking technology that will tell management who comes to the games, how often, and special information about them that can help make their visit more comfortable.

And the Center will stay on the cutting edge for years to come. Builders have installed extra raceways, ductwork and conduit for wiring that isn't even available yet. Extra large utility closets are available for technology that hasn't even been invented.

The Cold Hard Facts

One of the challenges facing American Airlines Center designers was the climate in North Texas. American Airlines Center has been specially designed to maintain the ice in the hot Texas climate. For instance:

- * American Airlines Center's air conditioning capacity will be 4600 tons. Reunion Arena's is 1400 tons.
- * The ice hockey slab in American Airlines Center will require 10,000 gallons of water (about the same as a residential pool) and use over 8 miles of pipe to keep the surface frozen.

From floor to lofty ceiling, American Airlines Center is a masterpiece of architecture, entertainment and technology. Media tours are available. Call Lori Sirmen (214) 303-5542 or Carey Conner (214) 706-6000 to schedule a tour of the American Airlines Center Marketing Center or see the latest at the construction site.

THOMAS O. HICKS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD & OWNER

Four consecutive Division Championships, two Presidents' Trophies as the team with the best regular season record, two consecutive trips to the Stanley Cup Finals and the 1999 Stanley Cup Championship are the highlights of the Dallas Stars' rapid ascent in the five years since Thomas O. Hicks contracted to purchase the hockey club in December 1995. Mr. Hicks serves as the Stars' Chairman of the Board and as the club's representative on the NHL Board of Governors. He has also played an instrumental role in the development and planning of the new downtown Dallas arena project, American Airlines Center.

Mr. Hicks, age 54, is Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst, Incorporated, a Dallas-based private investment firm formed in 1989 specializing in strategic investments, leveraged acquisitions and growth acquisitions. Since its formation, Hicks Muse has successfully raised over $17 billion of private equity funds, has consummated over $44 billion of leveraged acquisitions and has been one of the most active private investment firms in the country. The firm has emerged as the nation's largest active investor in the broadcast industry, with significant ownership in Clear Channel Communications, Inc., LIN Television, and Sunrise Television.

Olympus Real Estate Corporation, an affiliate of Hicks Muse, invests equity in real estate transactions on a national basis, including hotels, office buildings, multi-family and single family residential, golf resorts and golf course management. Since its formation in 1994, Olympus has completed transactions in excess of $4.5 billion.

Mr. Hicks serves as Chairman of Southwest Sports Group, Inc., a Dallas-based sports entertainment company that encompasses the Stars, Major League Baseball's Texas Rangers, the Mesquite Championship Rodeo, and a one-half owner of Center Operating Company which is constructing and operating the new American Airlines Center and co-developer of the Victory project in downtown Dallas with Ross Perot, Jr.'s Hillwood Development Company. Southwest Sports Group also is a joint venture partner with Fox Sports and Colorado Studios in Lone Star Mobile Productions.

Mr. Hicks is also Vice-Chairman and Director of Clear Channel Communications, Inc., and serves as Chairman and Director of Triton Energy Corporation, and is a Director of CCI Holdings, CorpGroup Limited, Home Interiors & Gifts, Inc., ICG Communications, Mumm Perrier-Jouet, MVS Corporation, Sybron International Corporation, Teligent, Inc. and Viasystems Group, Inc. He also serves on the Board of Directors of Crow Family Holdings, as well as the Chase Manhattan Corporation National Advisory Board.

Mr. Hicks is a former member of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas System and formerly served as Chairman of the University of Texas Investment Management Company, which manages the $13 billion University of Texas Permanent University Fund and Long Term Funds.

In June of 1998, Mr. Hicks became the owner of the Texas Rangers Baseball Club. Under his ownership, the Rangers won the American League West Division in 1998 and 1999.

Prior to forming Hicks Muse, Mr. Hicks was Co-Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer of Hicks & Haas Incorporated, another private investment firm specializing in leveraged acquisitions, from 1983 to May, 1989. From 1977 to 1983, Mr. Hicks was co-managing partner of Summit Partners, a Dallas-based LBO and special situation investment firm. Before that, he was President of First Dallas Capital Corporation, the venture capital affiliate of First National Bank of Dallas, from 1974 to 1977. Previously, he was an Investment Officer for the venture capital affiliate of Morgan Guaranty Trust Company in New York.

Mr. Hicks graduated with an MBA from the University of Southern California in 1970 and a BBA from the University of Texas in 1968.

Mr. Hicks has strong ties to the Dallas community and has provided continuing support to numerous organizations, including United Way, Goodwill, The Dallas Museum of Art, The Dallas Symphony Orchestra, The Science Place at Fair Park, the Austin Street Shelter Ministries and the Happy Hills Farm for Boys. In addition, he has held charity board memberships with United Way, Special Camps for Special Kids, and was the 1996 co-chair of the Dallas Jewish Coalition for the Homeless "Vogel Alcove" project. Mr. Hicks is the father of six children, and he and his wife, Cinda, reside in Dallas.

JAMES R. LITES

PRESIDENT AND ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Jim Lites serves as President of the Dallas Stars and the Texas Rangers of Major League Baseball. Mr. Lites is one of six executives in professional sports to head the front office of more than one organization.

Mr. Lites has been recognized throughout the NHL and the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex for the key role he has played in the growing success of the Dallas Stars. His determination and foresight have been an asset in both the building of a Stanley Cup championship team and the development of a world-class arena in downtown Dallas.

Mr. Lites was named President and Alternate Governor of the Dallas Stars on June 9, 1993, bringing with him a reputation as one of the finest administrators in hockey. He oversees all aspects of the Dallas Stars organization, including finances, marketing, advertising, public relations, promotions, ticket sales, budget development and broadcasting agreements. An influential member of the NHL's Board of Governors, he has served on the League's advisory committee and serves on committees for marketing & public relations, and broadcasting. Mr. Lites has served on the Board for seventeen consecutive years, one of the longest tenures in the NHL.

Mr. Lites, 47, joined the Stars after serving eleven years as Executive Vice President of the Detroit Red Wings. Prior to his involvement with the Red Wings, they had missed the NHL Playoffs in ten of the previous eleven seasons. During his tenure, the Red Wings won three Norris Division Championships, two Norris

Division Playoff Championships and were named by Financial World magazine as the most valuable franchise in the NHL in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Lites was instrumental in the defection of former Soviet stars Sergei Fedorov, Slava Kozlov and Vladimir Konstantinov, all important parts of Detroit's recent record-setting and Stanley Cup Champion hockey clubs.

While with Detroit, Mr. Lites also served as Chief Operating Officer of Olympia Arenas, Inc., one of the Midwest's largest facility management companies. He was also responsible for the redevelopment of Detroit's historic Fox Theatre, now the most successful entertainment venue of its type in the United States and the cornerstone of Detroit's growing northside sports, entertainment and gaming complexes.

Mr. Lites' success has followed him to Dallas. Working closely with Stars owner Tom Hicks and General Manager Bob Gainey, the Stars have won four straight Division Championships, two Presidents' Trophies and the 1999 Stanley Cup.

Born and raised in Pentwater, Michigan, Mr. Lites received a Bachelor of Arts degree with highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1975 and graduated cum laude from Wayne State (MI) University Law School in 1978. He specialized in litigation and labor contract negotiations when he practiced law.

Mr. Lites has two children, daughter Brooke, 16, and son Sam, 11. Jim is a member of the Lone Star Dallas Chapter of the YPO and is involved in many charities and civic enterprises in the Dallas area.

Gainney enters his fifth season as the full-time general manager. In the past four seasons, the Stars have won four straight Division Championships, two Presidents' Trophies for the best regular-season record in the NHL, and the 1999 Stanley Cup.

Now in his ninth overall season as general manager of the club, he held the dual role of coach and general manager from 1992-1996.

Having been appointed head coach on June 19, 1990, Gainney's five-plus consecutive seasons behind the bench was the longest tenure of any head coach in franchise history. Gainney led the Stars to the 1991 Stanley Cup Finals. He relinquished his head coaching duties on January 8, 1996.

A 16-year veteran who played his entire career with the Montreal Canadiens, Gainney was elected to the NHL's Hall of Fame in 1992. Gainney's career began in 1973 and includes five Stanley Cup Championships and over 1100 games and 500 points. The eight-year captain of the Canadiens retired in July of 1989, opting to coach a tier-two French team in Epinol.

Over the years, Gainney has been recognized many times individually and as part of a team. In addition to his five Stanley Cup rings as a player, he was a member of three Presidents'

Trophy-winning teams and seven Prince of Wales Conference Champion teams. Gainney played in four NHL All-Star Games and coached the 1992 Campbell Conference squad. In addition, he earned the Conn Smythe Trophy as Most Valuable Player of the 1979 playoffs.

At left wing, the Peterborough, Ontario native earned respect for his defensive abilities. He is a four-time winner of the NHL's Frank J. Selke Trophy as the forward who best excels in the defensive aspects of the game, and the only player in history to win the award on more than three occasions.

Gainney was an assistant general manager for the 1998 Canadian Olympic team after serving in that capacity for the 1996 Canadian World Cup of Hockey squad.

Gainney, who is fluent in English and French, is the Stars' sixth general manager and was the team's 16th head coach. He has four children, Anna, Steven, Laura and Colleen, and makes his home in Coppell, TX. His son, Steven, plays in the Dallas Stars organization after a junior career at Kamloops in the Western Hockey League.

KEN HITCHCOCK

HEAD COACH

Hired: Jan. 8, 1996 Birthdate: Dec. 17, 1951

In his fourth full year as head coach of the Dallas Stars, Ken Hitchcock took the team to their second consecutive Stanley Cup Finals appearance. This marked the first time in club history that the team had been to the Stanley Cup Finals two straight years. In Game One of the Western Conference Quarterfinals vs. Edmonton, Hitchcock coached in his franchise-leading 48th playoff game. Throughout his playoff career he has earned a 43-27 record, holding the franchise highs for career playoff wins and playoff winning percentage (.614). During the 1999-2000 regular season, Hitchcock improved his career record to 206-119-46, which ranks first on the Stars' all-time coaching list for wins and winning percentage (.617). He became the all-time winningest coach in Stars history with his 175th victory Dec. 1 at Montreal. Hitchcock added to his very impressive list of credentials by guiding Dallas to their fourth consecutive first place finish in the Pacific Division during the 1999-2000 season. He also coached in his 300th NHL game on Oct. 25 at Toronto and won his 200th game in the NHL on Mar. 12 vs. St. Louis. With his 200th win, Hitchcock became the fifth fastest coach to 200 wins in NHL history.

In his third year Hitchcock guided the Stars to the first Stanley Cup Championship in the franchise's history. In the 1999 post-season he set a new team record for the most career playoff wins by a Stars' coach (29) and the most playoff wins in one playoff year (16). During the 1998-99 season, Dallas became only the fourth team in NHL history to win the Presidents' Trophy in consecutive years since its inception in 1986. For his effort, Hitchcock was nominated for the NHL's Jack Adams Award as coach of the year for the third consecutive season.

Named head coach for the winning North American All-Star team at the 1999 NHL All-Star Game, Hitchcock had coached at the NHL's All-Star Game three straight seasons (1997-99). The nomination also marked the fifth time in six years that he had manned the bench for an All-Star contest. In addition to leading the World All-Stars in 1998 and the Western Conference at the 1997 NHL All-Star Game, Hitchcock also coached in 1994 and 1995 for the IHL's All-Star event.

In 1997-98, Hitchcock set then-team records for wins (49-22-11), points (109) and winning percentage (.665) while leading the Stars to the first Presidents' Trophy in franchise history and their second consecutive division crown. He then directed Dallas to the Western Conference Finals for only the fourth time in the team's history since 1979-80. On February 25, 1998, at the New York Islanders, Hitchcock earned his 100th NHL victory, becoming the fastest coach in team annals to reach the milestone and the 12th fastest coach in league history to reach 100 wins. He followed that by coaching in his 200th career NHL game on April 4, 1998 at Vancouver.

During the 1996-97 season, his first full campaign as the Stars' head coach, Hitchcock guided Dallas to a first place finish in the Central Division, making Dallas only the ninth team in NHL history to go from last to first in one season. He again led the Stars to then-team records in wins and points with a 48-26-8 mark (104 points), tying for the fifth best turnaround by a team from one season to the next in league history. Hitchcock was honored in 1996-97 as The Sporting News and The Hockey News Coach of the Year while finishing second in voting for the NHL's Jack Adams Trophy.

Named to his position on January 8, 1996, the 48-year old native of Edmonton has posted a winning record in every season as a head coach prior to joining the Stars, including record-breaking numbers in the Western Hockey League in the late 1980's.

Getting his start behind the bench as a head coach in the Canadian Triple AAA Midget ranks with Sherwood Park, a suburb of Edmonton, Hitchcock posted an incredible 575-69 mark during his ten year reign there. Honored as the Alberta Minor Hockey Association Coach of the Year in 1983-84, he also was awarded Minor Hockey Coach of the Year honors in 1982-83.

Named head coach of the Kamloops Blazers of the WHL in 1989, he began a dominating run at the junior level, which saw his team finish first in the West Division in five of his six seasons at the helm. The WHL Coach of the Year in 1986-87 and 1989-90, Hitchcock was named the top coach in all of Canadian Major Jr. Hockey in 1989-90 after the Blazers won the WHL title and finished third at the Memorial Cup. His .693 winning percentage (291-125-15) at Kamloops is the highest in the history of the Western Hockey League. 1999-2000 SEASON IN REVIEW

DALLAS APPEARS IN SECOND STRAIGHT STANLEY CUP FINALS: For the first time in franchise history, the Dallas Stars appeared in the Stanley Cup Finals two consecutive seasons. Dallas won the Stanley Cup in 1999 by defeating the Buffalo Sabers in six games and lost in the Finals in six games to the New Jersey Devils in 2000.

MODANO NAMED SECOND TEAM NHL ALL-STAR: Mike Modano became the first player in club history to be named to either the first or the second NHL All-Star team when he was elected to the second All-Star team at the conclusion of the 1999-2000 season. Modano recorded 46 points over his last 35 games (22-24-46) going back to Jan. 20, ranking second in the league in points and goals over that time span.

HULL FIRST IN NHL IN PLAYOFF POINTS, GOALS AND TIED FOR FIRST IN ASSISTS: In Game Five at New Jersey, Brett Hull assisted on Mike Modano's game-winner in a 1-0 victory. He recorded five goals and eight points (5-3-8) during the Western Conference Finals vs. Colorado and had four points (2-2-4) in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. New Jersey. Hull scored in 14 of his last 20 games (10-12-22). He also finished first on the Stars in points (24), goals (11), shots (79), game-winning goals (4) and tied for first in assists (13). On October 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing face-off, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.

#7 NEAL BROTEN

Neal Broten finished his NHL career as the most decorated player ever born in the United States. As early as high school he was a champion, taking his Roseau, MN high school to three Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournaments. He would go on to lead the University of Minnesota to the 1979 NCAA Championship and was awarded the first-ever Hobey Baker Award as the nation's top collegiate hockey player in 1981. Broten entered history in 1980 as he helped the "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic team win the gold-medal. He was the last member of that squad to play in the NHL.

Broten, fittingly, scored his first career NHL goal in his first career NHL game with the Minnesota North Stars on March 31, 1981 vs. St. Louis. In his first full season, 1981-82, he was named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-

60-98). Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for assists in a season with 76. Overall, he holds or shares a total of 12 Stars records.

Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. He was dealt by the Stars to New Jersey in February of 1995, where he achieved his remaining goal. Having been to the Stanley Cup Finals twice before with the Stars (1981, 1991), he played an instrumental role in the Devils' Stanley Cup victory in 1995, finishing second on that championship club with 19 points (7-12-19) in 20 playoff contests. Broten began the 1996-97 season with New Jersey, and had a brief stint with Los Angeles before the Stars reacquired him off waivers on January 28, 1997. Finishing the season with Dallas, Broten totaled 923 points for his career, the second-highest point total ever for an American-born player behind only Joe Mullen (1,063).

In June of 1996, Broten was honored with USA Hockey's Distinguished Achievement Award and in April of 1997 he was named to the All-Time USA Hockey First Team. In addition, he was selected as USA Hockey's Player of the Decade for 1976-77 to 1985-86 and in the Summer of 1997 was named a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, one of only two players (Ken Morrow) to win the Award twice, having won it the first time as a member of the 1980 gold medal USA team. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998.

#19 BILL MASTERTON

1967-68

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural 1967-68 NHL team. He played two seasons of professional hockey for Hull-Ottawa of the EPHL in 1961-62 and Cleveland of the American Hockey League in 1962-63. The North Stars retired Masterton's jersey number in memory of the only professional hockey player to lose his life because of an injury suffered during an NHL game. Masterton hit the back of his head on the ice on January 13, 1968 against Oakland, and passed away two days later. The North Stars named the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup Award in his memory, presenting it to the North Stars player voted most valuable by his teammates during the season. Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another North Star and was retired in 1987.

#8 BILL GOLDSWORTHY

1967-77

Bill Goldsworthy started his career as a North Star in 1967 when Minnesota selected him from Boston in the 1967 expansion draft. He made his name with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy set marks throughout his career, becoming the first player from a post-1967 team to score 200 goals and the first to score 250. In 1971, Goldsworthy became the team's leading scorer and goal scorer, a mark he held for over a decade. His 48-goal season in 1973-74 was the best ever by a North Star until 1981-82 and he averaged over 30 goals a year during his Stars career. In 1976, Goldsworthy became the first North Star ever to reach the 500-point plateau. In 670 games with Minnesota, he totalled 267 goals, 239 assists for 506 points. Goldsworthy's number eight was retired on February 15, 1992.

EARLY DALLAS HOCKEY HISTORY

Many people do not realize that the roots of professional hockey in Dallas date back to the fall of 1941. It was a strange and unusual site, as the Fair Park Ice Arena welcomed the sport from the North to the citizens of Dallas for the first time. Advertised in the papers as "The most dangerous game in the world...murder on ice, it has been called...with playing speed, flashing blades and crashing bodies," the lights came up on a debut unlike any other.

In the spring of 1941, Clarence E. Linz announced his team, the Texans, would be starting play the next year, joining the American Hockey Association along with a candidate from Fort Worth. As President of Ice Sports, Inc, Linz would become instrumental in not only creating the Texans, but later, bringing in ice shows, including the famous Sonja Henie Ice Show, to the State Fair each fall.

Taking the helm of the Texans in their inaugural year would be player/coach Leroy "Goldie" Goldsworthy. A former National Hockey League player, he spent nine seasons in the big leagues, scoring 123 total points off of 66 goals and 57 assists while playing for the New York Rangers, Detroit Red Wings, Chicago Blackhawks, Montreal Canadiens, Boston Bruins and New York Americans. It was through his many years with the NHL that he hoped to be able to find players with experience who could help him in his new endeavor.

Of the original team, only Paul Runge and Pete Palangio had seen time in the NHL, with Paul playing from 1930 to 1938 with Boston, the Montreal Maroons and the Montreal Canadiens while Pete suited up for the Canadiens, Red Wings and Blackhawks from 1926 to 1938.

On November 6, 1941, hockey made its debut in Dallas with the first of 50 games, 25 at home. Fans could get in the game for the mere general admission price of 55 cents. Three thousand reserve seats were available from 80 cents up to $1.20, while boxes and rinkside seats would run you anywhere from $1.65 to $2.25.

Opening night was truly a spectacular gala. With World War II raging, Linz made the decision that 50% of the proceeds would be donated to the United China Relief Fund. Organized by Mrs. William M. Lingo, Jr. and the Dallas Club women, they hoped to raise $2,500 during the evening with Chinese candies and cakes sold by girls in Chinese costumes during the game. First time patrons to hockey, must surely have been somewhat confused by the multi-cultural surroundings of this strange sport.

Matching up against the St. Paul Saints in their inaugural game, the Texans played in front of a near capacity crowd of 4,273. Tony Licari scored the team's first goal, but the Saints, behind three power play goals, stole the home team's thunder by winning the game 4-1. George Higgins, President of the American Hockey Association, pronounced the game a success and was pleased with the condition of the arena and the number of spectators.

The season continued with Dallas fighting, many times literally, for a playoff spot. Going into the final night of the season, Dallas remained one point ahead of Tulsa for the final playoff spot. The Texans had been clinging to a three point lead, only to see it evaporate after a 4-2 loss to St. Paul in front of 2,500 fans on honorary newspaper boy night. Dallas would go home early in their inaugural year, losing out on the money to be made in the postseason. In the playoffs, the major share of the gate receipts went directly to the players.

It would be the last time many of these men would come to Dallas. The horrors of World War II and the continued involvement of the United States and Canada forced the cancellation of hockey in the south and meant the end of the American Hockey Association.

Dallas would not see hockey again for four years.

Hockey was back in "Big D" for the 1945-46 season, as Linz once again brought the Texans to life, this time joining the Kansas City Pla-mors, Omaha Knights, St. Paul Saints, Tulsa Oilers, Fort Worth Rangers and Minneapolis Millers in the United States Hockey League.

The fight to make the Texans had been tough as those who were cut would go to Eastern League teams where the salaries were nearly one-half of those in the USHL.

On October 10, 1945, Linz announced Leroy Goldsworthy would return as coach and introduced the team's first player, 20-year-old goaltender Al Picard. Goldsworthy rated the youngster so highly, he expected to sell him at the end of the season to an NHL club.

With Roy McBride the oldest man on the team at 24, many of the players ranged in age from 17 to 20. Only Lloyd Finkbeiner had seen action in the NHL, playing one game with the New York Americans in 1940-41 and going scoreless, while only Hugh Currie ever would in the future. During the 1950-51 season, he played in one game for Montreal, going scoreless.

1946-47 DALLAS TEXANS

Opening night brought a crowd of 4,300. Fans were able to purchase their rinkside seats for a mere $2.00 while others ranged from $1.00 to $1.50 with general admission at 70 cents. It was an exciting and hard fought contest as the home favorites beat Tulsa 5-3, having been led by Lou Smrke who tallied a hat trick with three goals.

The heroics and joy of opening night were short-lived. The 1945-46 season proved to be a roller-coaster ride of ups and downs. At the end of February, the Texans set a new league record of two consecutive losses by the largest margin, having been defeated by Kansas City 13-1 and then Tulsa 12-1. In their next two games, the club set a new league record for two consecutive wins by the largest margin, beating both Kansas City and Minneapolis 10-2. Such was the '45-46 season.

The rivalry with Fort Worth continued as former Texan Paul Runge now coached the Rangers. The two teams met for the last time on March 13 in front of 4,204 people in Fort Worth and played to a 3-3 tie. New goalie Nick Pidsodny stopped 50 shots on the night, including 11 in the 10 minute overtime.

The season ended on March 19, 1946. The Dallas Morning News announced this as "the biggest hockey season this city has ever had." In the final game, the Texans faced league leader Kansas City in front of a near capacity crowd of 5,000. It was rumored that the Pla-mors wanted to run up the score to show their dominance heading into the postseason. The home town team caught wind of this plan and set out to foil it. Playing what the paper called, "the fastest and most rugged athletic competition ever unfreled on a local battlefield," the Texans gave Kansas City a 5-1 lashing.

The 1946-47 team brought in new players as well as a new coach while the league accepted a new team - the Houston Huskies. George Boothman was signed on to take the helm for Dallas as well as play center for the club after captaining the Buffalo Bisons to the AHL Championship in 1946.

The Texans proved to be one of the strongest in the USHL that year. After winning their opener on October 24, 8-4, over Tulsa, behind John MacKenzie's two goals in 20 seconds, they came back and defeated Omaha, 2-1, in front of 4,100 fans to jump into first place.

First place is where they remained throughout the season. Despite the replacement of Murray Armstrong for George Boothman as player/coach, the team finished on top of the Southern Division with a 27-18-15 record and 69 points.

In the post-season, Dallas entered as the top team in the Southern Division, but due to the scheduling format, was forced to play the best team in the league, the Omaha Knights, who had a 29-16-15 record. The Texans dropped the series to Omaha in six contests.

With the start of 1947-48 season, a few changes were in store for the league and in particular the Texans. Jim Hendy took over as the new President of the USHL while on the local scene, Lex Cook took over coaching duties for the Dallas club.

Another difference for the Texans was their agreement to be for the first time a farm team for the powerful Montreal Canadiens of the NHL. Despite this seemingly quality improvement though, the Texans were in for a rough year.

Points would come hard for the Texans as they finished with the worst record in the league that season at 21-39-6 for only 48 points. Leading scorer for the club was Gord Petrie with 62 points off of 13 goals and 49 assists while Nick Pidsodny was the top netminder on the team with a 4.18 GAA, 10th in the league. For the season-ending All Star squad, Jake Milford, a player/assistant coach for the Texans, was the only member named, earning a spot on the First Team.

The Texans inter-state rival from Houston took home the Paul W. Loudon Trophy as league champions, defeating Minneapolis three games to two.

Things could only get better for the local team when the 1948-49 campaign opened. Lex Cook was returning as coach of the Texans with the Montreal Canadiens still providing some exciting skaters to stock the club.

A bright, new addition to the team was Joe Bell, who was sent down from Montreal after playing parts of two years with the New York Rangers in the NHL. In his 62 games in the big-time, he had totaled 17 points (8-9-17). Also, coming to Dallas was the fiery goaltender Paul Bibeault. In his seven seasons in the NHL from 1940 to 1947, he recorded 3.65 goals against average while playing in a combined 297 games for Montreal, Toronto, Boston and Chicago.

TEXANS ACTION FROM 1947-48

Introduced to members of the media by officials of the Ice Cycles of 1948, an exhibit at the Texas State Fair, the team also featured newcomers George Bougie, Jimmy Moore and a young kid name Howie Morenz, Jr. - the son of the Hall of Famer who played with Montreal, Chicago and New York from 1923 to 1937.

With the season starting, the Texans were one of the youngest clubs on the circuit, featuring no less than six players making their professional debuts. Because of this, coach Cook pleaded with the Canadiens to send down some help for the home opener. Montreal responded with Roger Leger, Todd Campeau, Jacques Richard and Jimmy Galbraith. Leger, who played with Montreal the previous season when they went to the Stanley Cup Finals, volunteered to go to Dallas so he could take off some of the weight he had acquired over the off-season.

By the time the Texans rolled into town for their home-opener, they were already in last place with a 1-3-1 record. Squee Allen was now suffering from a broken leg and was out. And netminder Bibeault, who was called "belligerent" by the local media, was leading the league, in of all things, penalty minutes and, prior to their home game with St. Paul, was stricken with Pleurisy and wasn't able to suit up.

But Lex Cook's prophesies that "once this young team gets their feet wet, they'll be something," began to come true. By season's end, the Texans had surged into second place in the Southern Division, finishing with a 24-27-15 record with 63 points. Gordie Petrie once again led the team in points, finishing fifth in the league with 24-57-81. Joe Bell (37-38-75) and Dennis Fillion (22-38-60) also ended among league leaders, while Bibeault recorded a 3.78 goals-against average with two shutouts. He would end up winning both the Herman W. Peterson Cup for Most Valuable Player and the Charles Gardiner Memorial Trophy as the USHL's best goaltender.

Named to the season-and All Star Team were Bibeault, as the First Team goalie, and Tom Rockey, the USHL's leading defenseman scorer, and Joe Bell as Second Team All-Stars.

In the playoffs, the Texans faced off on March 22, 1949 against their rivals from Fort Worth in their best two out of three quarterfinal series. The Rangers had won six of their last seven going into the post-season while Dallas had lost five of their last seven.

Roles would be reversed, however. Behind Joe Bell's hat trick and the outstanding play of Bibeault in net, Dallas handed Fort Worth an 8-0 loss in the opening game in front of 4,000 fans. The shutout was the first in USHL playoff history, proving to doubters that the feisty netminder deserved his regular season awards.

After winning the second game 5-3, Dallas moved on to Tulsa in the semi-finals who were the Southern Division champs during the regular season. The Oilers quickly disposed of the upstart Texans, knocking them off 4-1 in both games to move into the finals. It was the St. Paul Saints, winners of the Northern Division with 82 points, who took home the title though, defeating Tulsa four games to one.

The end of the 1948-49 season brought the end of professional hockey to the Dallas area. Due to increased travel costs, Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston all dropped out of the USHL. The league would thrive for two more seasons, adding teams from Louisville, Milwaukee and Denver, before finally bowing out all together after the 1950-51 campaign.

Upon their withdrawal from the USHL, the three Texas teams made plans to form a new league, along with Wichita, called the Texas Hockey Association. Chrys Kelly of Dallas was to serve as President with the league expanding into places like San Antonio, Shreveport and New Orleans by 1950. The new organization, though, failed to materialize, leaving Dallas without professional hockey for the next 18 years.

Before the Stars arrived in Dallas for the 1993-94 season, the Central Hockey League operated a team in Dallas from 1967-1982 called the Dallas Blackhawks, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Blackhawks. The CHL returned for two seasons in 1992-93 and 1993-94 with the Dallas Freeze before that club ceased operations.

INTERVIEWS: The Stars locker room is closed to the media before all games. The best time to conduct interviews on gamedays is after the morning skate. All NHL locker rooms are closed for five minutes after the game. The training room at StarCenter and Reunion Arena is closed to the media at all times. Any player (with the exception of goaltenders) may be pre-taped before a game as long as the interview is completed 95 minutes before game time.

Practices: The recommended time for media to interview Stars players is after practice. Unless a team meeting is called, the team locker room will be open no later than five minutes after the first player leaves the ice, or earlier if deemed by the Stars media relations department. Requests for interviews to be conducted at a location other than StarCenter must be cleared through the Stars media relations department.

Broadcast and live shots: All player requests for that night's broadcast or live shots must be arranged prior to the end of the Stars' morning skate on the day of a game (11:30 a.m.). Players will not be available for broadcast or live shots after 6:00 p.m. for a 7:35 p.m. game or after 5:30 p.m. for a 7:05 p.m. game.

Head coach interviews: Stars head coach Ken Hitchcock will meet with the media after each game in room S48 on the locker room level of the arena.

DINING FACILITIES: The Media Dining Room is located on the locker room level of Reunion Arena. The dining area is small and admittance will be restricted to Stars game-night employees, working press and visiting officials. PLAYOFF FORMAT

The National Hockey League's 30 clubs are aligned into two conferences, each consisting of three divisions. Sixteen teams will qualify for the 2001 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

First-round playoff berths will be awarded to the first-place team in each division, as well as to the next five-best teams (based on regular-season point totals in each conference). The three division winners in each conference will be seeded first through third (in order of points) and the next five-best teams (in order of points) will be seeded fourth through eighth. In each conference, the team seeded #1 will play the team seeded #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6 and #4 vs. #5 in the Conference Quarterfinal round. Home-ice in the Conference Quarterfinals is granted to those teams seeded first through fourth in each conference.

In the Conference Semifinals and Conference Finals, teams will be re-seeded according to the same criteria as the Conference Quarterfinals (division leaders will be seeded first and granted home-ice advantage while the remaining teams will be seeded in order of regular-season points).

Home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup series will be determined by points. All series are best-of-seven.

The Dallas Stars take great pride in their accomplishments on the ice, but are just as proud of their off-ice efforts to make our community a better place to live. The Stars support charitable programs that enhance the lives of our youth and serve other members of the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex.

Nike/NHL StreetStars

This off-ice league-wide initiative provides youth with an inexpensive recreational alternative while cultivating a new generation of hockey playing fans. StreetStars, which currently operates in 47 centers in the Metroplex, allows over 7,000 children to learn and practice street hockey skills, play in organized games and receive playbooks designed to reinforce the rules of the game. The Dallas Stars hosted the First Annual StreetStars Championship this summer at The Ballpark in Arlington. Light the Lamp, an off-shoot of Nike/NHL StreetStars, is a multi-media life skills program that teaches kids about teamwork, goal setting and responsibility. The Light the Lamp program is currently offered at eight centers throughout the Metroplex.

NHL Breakout

Breakout is the official off-ice hockey tour of the National Hockey League that combines competitive tournament play with a myriad of interactive hockey attractions. NHL Breakout 2001 is tentatively scheduled to visit the Metroplex in May 2001.

Hospital Visits

During the holiday season, the Stars strive to bring hope and happiness to families in need. The Stars players visit Children's Medical Center of Dallas and Cook Children's Hospital in Fort Worth each year to sign autographs and take photos with the kids.

Dallas Stars Foundation

The Dallas Stars Foundation was established to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex. The Foundation focuses its efforts on providing support to children of the community so they may lead quality lives and develop into contributing members of society. Through teamwork, interaction, and education, the Dallas Stars Foundation works to bring together all members of the Metroplex and build a bright future for today's youth. Foundation events and programs include the following:

Dallas Stars Bonnie Blair Golf Classic

On September 16-18, 2000, the Stars participated in the 4th Annual Dallas Stars Bonnie Blair Golf Classic co-hosted by Stars General Manager Bob Gainey and Olympic gold medalist Bonnie Blair. Dallas-area golfers were given the chance to hit the links with their favorite Stars players and Olympic champions. The weekend-long event also included a Stars preseason game and pregame reception, a skating party, and the golf tournament and post-tournament awards banquet at Bridlewood Golf Club.

Leather Center Dallas Stars Face-Off Luncheon

The Stars officially began their season with the Leather Center Dallas Stars Face-Off Luncheon held at The Hyatt Regency at Reunion on September 27, 2000. Attendees were given the opportunity to dine with the Stars players and coaches, while the Stars broadcast team provided entertaining player interviews.

Skate With the Stars

The Eighth Annual Skate With the Stars is tentatively set for November 2000. Each year over 1,000 fans gather at Reunion Arena to lace up their skates and take the ice with the Stars players. Other features include autographs, photos with select players, and a buffet provided by various local restaurants.

Dallas Stars Casino Night

In January 2001, the Stars will hold their 4th Annual Dallas Stars Casino Night, which is an evening of fun and elegance featuring the Stars players as guest casino dealers. The event also includes autographs and photos with the players, a cocktail buffet, a spectacular silent auction and great casino prizes.

Stick With Reading

In an effort to combat the problem of illiteracy, the Foundation has developed the Stick With Reading program. Since the program's inception in 1998, over 42,000 Metroplex students have participated in the program, which gives children the chance to win incentive prizes and a visit from a Stars player by recording their extracurricular reading over a six-week period.

Jr. Staff Night

The Dallas Stars Foundation has teamed up with Junior Achievement of Dallas to host Jr. Staff Night 2000. Each year fifty middle school students are invited to a preseason game to "shadow" Dallas Stars' personnel as they conduct their game-day activities. The program is designed to give students a "behind-the-scenes" glimpse of a major sports event and heighten their awareness of the career opportunities available in professional sports. Over 500 students, teachers and principals attended the Stars vs. Red Wings preseason game in conjunction with this year's event.

Stars of Tomorrow Educational Tour Program

This program provides elementary and middle school classrooms the chance to take an educational tour at Dr Pepper StarCenter, see the Dallas Stars practice, and receive a 30-minute ice skating session. The students are then encouraged to write essays about their experience at Dr Pepper StarCenter. Each month two winning essays are chosen and invited to a Stars game. At the end of the season, two grand prize winners are selected and these students each receive a $300 U.S. Savings Bond.

Newspapers in Education

In conjunction with the Dallas Morning News, the Foundation sponsors a Newspapers in Education Character Education supplement. Using the Dallas Stars players as examples, this curriculum addresses such topics as respecting others, perseverance, honesty, responsibility, building community and taking initiative. Over 10,000 students participated in the program last year.

High School Media Day

Each spring, high school journalism students are invited to take a tour of the practice facility, enjoy lunch, watch a Stars practice and take part in a question and answer session with members of the local media and select Stars players. The students then return to their schools and write articles on the experience for their school newspapers. The Stars select a winning article, the author of which is invited to sit in the Reunion Arena pressbox during a Stars game.

Tickets for Kids

Season ticket holders are encouraged to return to the Stars any game tickets they are unable to use. The Dallas Stars Foundation then donates them to sick or underprivileged children who would otherwise be unable to attend Stars games. Last season over 300 Dallas-area children received Stars game tickets through the program.

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this joint.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months rehabilitation.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT Scan (Computerized Tomography): Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

Hematoma: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Sciatica: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Sprain: A joint injury to a ligament(s). A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament. 1st Degree - a stretching but no tear of a ligament. Athlete may be able to continue to play or usually return to play in a few days. 2nd Degree - A partial tear of a ligament. Bracing may be required. Athlete will usually miss one to four weeks. 3rd Degree - A complete tear of a ligament. Depending upon ligament involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete is usually out from three weeks up to twelve months depending upon course of treatment.

Strain: A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or tendon. 1st Degree - A stretching but no tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete may be able to continue to play or usually return to play in a few days. 2nd Degree - A partial tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete will usually miss one to four weeks. 3rd Degree - A complete tear of a muscle or tendon. Depending upon muscle or tendon involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete is usually out from three weeks up to twelve months depending upon course of treatment.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

ANSWERS TO FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

DETERMINING A TEAM'S WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide total points by total number of possible points (two for each game).

PLUS-MINUS: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his team scores an even-strength or short-handed goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing team. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

GAME-WINNING GOAL: The goal that gives the winning team one more goal than the losing team.

CONSECUTIVE GAME, GOAL, ASSIST, POINT-SCORING STREAK: In addition to being discounted whenever a player fails to record the goal or assist needed to extend a streak in a given game, the streak shall be terminated whenever the player fails to appear in a game.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a goal is scored with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47).

ROOKIE STATUS: A player shall be considered a rookie if he has not played in 25 or more games during any single preceding season, or not in six or more games during any two preceding seasons.

ROSTER LIMITS: Each team dresses 18 skaters (generally 12 forwards and six defensemen) and two goal-tenders per game. A team may carry up to 23 players at a time.

TRADING DEADLINE: 2:00 CST of the 26th day before the final day of the NHL regular season marks the deadline for trades between NHL teams. This date also marks the deadline for loans and recalls from minor league teams. This season's deadline falls on March 13.

TIE BREAKING PROCEDURES: In the event of a tie in standing points, these steps determine which team shall finish in the higher position: 1) Most wins, 2) Most points earned in season series between the two tied teams (points earned in the first game played in the city that has the extra game shall not be included), 3) Differential in total goals scored and total goals allowed over full 82-game schedule.
